GIANT FORGING DONE AT HOME

An 18x18 in. Steel Shaft Forged in the Honolulu Iron Works, Perhaps the Largest Forging ever made in the Islands.

LARGEST FLYWHEEL IN THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

This wheel has been designed and built in the shops of the Honolulu Iron Works Co. It is 18 feet in diameter, weighs 56,000 lbs., and was cast in two pieces. The wheel was built to the order of Mr. M. Lorenz, Consulting Engineer for Messrs. H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., for the mill engine at Oahu Plantation. It is a perfect casting in every way and runs absolutely true on the shaft. During recent years, the Honolulu Iron Works Co., have built a number of flywheels for the mill engines imported by them, but while some have been of the same diameter as the one shown here, none have been so heavy.

PUPILS GATHER NOTES LIKE AN ARMY OF REPORTERS

The Alexander Young Hotel yesterday morning had the appearance of being invaded by a small army of reporters. Young people of both sexes with pencils and pads inspected the big hostelry from roof to cellar and jotted down about everything the eye could take in. Manager Lake and Assistant Manager Smith were amazed at first and their first thought was that a tax assessor's force had been suddenly thrown into the building to make up the returns.

It was only a class of pupils under their teacher from Kamehameha school, however, which was on one of its tours of observation with the idea of gathering material for compositions. The teacher came in the van and received permission to inspect the building and in a short time the pupils were running over every part of the structure. They were conducted into the handsome parlors and into some of the finest suites. The names of certain pieces of furniture struck the pupils forcibly, for instantly there was a scratching of pencils on the pads as the names were carefully jotted down. The Roof Garden was of peculiar interest. The electric light facilities, the elevators, the chef's domain, the dining and grill rooms, the mysterious apparatus with which delicious dishes are prepared, the store-rooms, the telephone system and the myriad of details which comprise the far-reaching hotel system, were carefully inspected. The pads fairly bristled with notes when the pupils had finished their interesting tour.

The result of the visit will be incorporated into forty or more compositions on the personal observations of the young visitors, one of the methods by which the Kamehameha school endeavors to get its pupils to use their powers of observation.

MISSOURI EDITOR ON DECEIT.

Deceit often undermines the fabric of the home and it also sometimes disconnects a man from a good horse and leaves a jaded, wind-broken, stump sucking steed in its stead.

Deceit is practised almost exclusively by men and mules. Men are extremely deceitful and occasionally a woman is found who is handy at pulling the Angora goat hair over the eyes, while a mule will maintain a sleepy, docile attitude for months and months for the blessed privilege of kicking its driver into the next township.

The 'possum is very deceitful except when parboiled, baked brown and surrounded by sweet potatoes.

People say that a girl says no when she means yes, but married men have not found it that way.

Some men are so deceitful that they lie to their wives, lie to their offspring, lie to the editor, lie to the preacher, and even lie to the candidate after they have the hog-faced dollar in the pocket of their trousers.

There are men in Missouri who are so deceitful that they try to deceive themselves. They reason that a dull headache and the dark brown taste is simply a pleasant specimen of innocent enjoyment. Such men, if they are ever fortunate enough to get in hailing distance of the pearly gates, will try to palm themselves off on St. Peter as class leaders.

If there is anything that brings more woe and misery into the world than deception, Noah Webster has overlooked it in his Unabridged. Yet we go right along deceiving our wives, our posterity, and if it was possible we would palm off a deception on the God who made us and will save us, if we can drop our infernal deception.

Deception is the rat trap that catches the entire human family and then turns right around and puts a nice piece of fresh cheese on the trigger in an effort to catch the man who made the trap.

Beware of the base deceiver, and be careful that you don't stumble and fall over yourself.—Nevada (Mo.) Post.
